

1 Module A: Texts and Human Experiences (30 hours) 1 Interpret and respond to texts that deal with the question of what it means to be human. 1 Focus on Writing (10 hours) 2 Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 6 Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-1B, EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-4, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 8 Major Assessment: Speaking and Listening Task Module A: Texts and Human Experiences (continued for 2 weeks) Module C: Close Study of Text (30 hours) 3 Widents engage in extensive exploration and interpretation of the text Forenheit 451 and the ways the author portrays people, ideas and events in the text. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued. Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and form	Term	Week	YEAR 12 HSC EALD – 2025 SCOPE & SEQUENCE
Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 6 Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-1B, EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-4, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 8 Major Assessment: Speaking and Listening Task 1 Module A: Texts and Human Experiences (continued for 2 weeks) Module C: Close Study of Text (30 hours) 3 ways the author portrays people, ideas and events in the text. 4 Focus on Writing (10 hours) 5 analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 7 Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 8 Major Assessment: Analytical Response 10 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) 5 Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) 5 Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and media to produce their own crafted works. 7 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued 2 Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued 4 Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafte		1	, , ,
4 Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 6 Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-1B, EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-4, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 8 Major Assessment: Speaking and Listening Task Module A: Texts and Human Experiences (continued for 2 weeks) Module C: Close Study of Text (30 hours) Students engage in extensive exploration and interpretation of the text Forenheit 451 and the ways the author portrays people, ideas and events in the text. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students and be world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students and we cond are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students and language and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these text as models and inspiration, t		2	l , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 6 Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-1B, EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-4, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9. 8 Major Assessment: Speaking and Listening Task 1 Module A: Texts and Human Experiences (continued for 2 weeks) Module C: Close Study of Text (30 hours) Students engage in extensive exploration and interpretation of the text Forenheit 451 and the ways the author portrays people, ideas and events in the text. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response 10 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own		3
media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-1B, EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-4, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Speaking and Listening Task Module A: Texts and Human Experiences (continued for 2 weeks) Module C: Close Study of Text (30 hours) Students engage in extensive exploration and interpretation of the text Farenheit 451 and the ways the author portrays people, ideas and events in the text. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of a			· ·
Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-1B, EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-4, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Speaking and Listening Task Module A: Texts and Human Experiences (continued for 2 weeks) Module C: Close Study of Text (30 hours) Students engage in extensive exploration and interpretation of the text Farenheit 451 and the ways the author portrays people, ideas and events in the text. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules	4		media to produce their own crafted works.
Additional Process of Process			Outcomes: EAL12-1A EAL12-1B EAL12-2 EAL12-3 EAL12-4 EAL12-5 EAL12-6 EAL12-7
Major Assessment: Speaking and Listening Task Module A: Texts and Human Experiences (continued for 2 weeks)
1 Module A: Texts and Human Experiences (continued for 2 weeks) Module C: Close Study of Text (30 hours) Students engage in extensive exploration and interpretation of the text Farenheit 451 and the ways the author portrays people, ideas and events in the text. 4 Focus on Writing (10 hours) Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 7 Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response 10 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 7 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement A Sudents analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to Module C: Close Study of Text (30 hours) Students engage in extensive exploration and interpretation of the text Farenheit 451 and the ways the author portrays people, ideas and events in the text. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response 10 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules
Students engage in extensive exploration and interpretation of the text Farenheit 451 and the ways the author portrays people, ideas and events in the text. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works.
4 Focus on Writing (10 hours) 5 Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 7 Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 8 Major Assessment: Analytical Response 10 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) 5 Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. 7 Focus on Writing (10 hours) 5 Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 7 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued 5 Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued 5 Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 0 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 8 Revision of all Modules		2
Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response 10 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules		3
and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7 Major Assessment: Analytical Response 1		4
media to produce their own crafted works. 7	1	5	,
Major Assessment: Analytical Response 10 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules		6
Major Assessment: Analytical Response 10		7
10 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 7 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules		8	Outcomes: EAL12-1A, EAL12-3, EN12-4, EN12-5, EN12-7
Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours) Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules		9	Major Assessment: Analytical Response
Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules		10	, '
Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules Revision of all Modules		1	Module B: Language, Identity and Culture (30 hours)
with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing (10 hours) Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules			, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied in the Close Study of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 7 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 8 Revision of all Modules			, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , of Text module. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules			4 · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 7 8 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules	2
7 8 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued 2 Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. 3 Focus on Writing continued 4 Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 6 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 8 Revision of all Modules 9			, , , ,
9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued 2 Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. 4 Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 5 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 8 Revision of all Modules 9			works.
9 Major Assessment: Imaginative Writing with Reflection Statement 1 Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued 2 Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. 3 Focus on Writing continued 4 Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 6 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 8 Revision of all Modules			Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9
Module B: Language, Identity and Culture continued Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules
Students develop awareness and understanding of how our perceptions of and relationships with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules with others and the world are shaped by written, spoken and visual language. Focus on Writing continued Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules
Students analyse, evaluate and reflect on the qualities of the texts studied. Using these texts as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules			, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , as models and inspiration, they experiment with techniques, styles and forms in a range of modes and media to produce their own crafted works. 6 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules		3
modes and media to produce their own crafted works. Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 Revision of all Modules		4	,
6 7 Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9 8 Revision of all Modules 9	2	5
8 Revision of all Modules	3	6	media and media to produce their own crafted works.
9		7	Outcomes: EAL12-2, EAL12-3, EAL12-5, EAL12-6, EAL12-7, EAL12-8, EAL12-9
9		8	Revision of all Modules
Addition Assessment Title and			nevision of all Modules
		10	Major Assessment: Trial Exam